The 2010 Mille Miglia will take place from Wednesday, May the 5th (optional), to Sunday, May the 9th.

Entry applications are now open and will close at 12 midnight on Sunday, December 20th, 2009.

Those who wish to participate in the event must register on the website by this date. They will obtain a username and a password which will be used to access the on-line entry form. This is divided into 9 parts. When all parts have been filled in, they will be given an entry registration number. It will then be necessary to attach the following on-line:

- an FIA Heritage Certificate and/or CSAI papers and/or an FIVA Passport
- as much historical documentation on the car as possible, including those passed on by previous owners
- photographs of the car

The entry fee of € 6,060.00 (V.A.T. included) must be paid by credit card, using our secure server on the website www.1000miglia.eu , once the entry process has been completed. We accept VISA and MasterCard.

For information as to the status of your entry registration, all you have to do is check the website.

From February 1st, 2010 the results of the committee's decision as to whether your car has been accepted or not will be shown on-line in your personal area. To provide further confirmation, a registered air-mail letter will be sent directly to you as well. If the car has not been accepted, the entry fee (minus bank handling fees) will be returned by wire transfer to the bank account shown on your entry registration form.
